Subject: A+D Museum @ DTLA2040

Hello Ms. Schatz -

I am the new Executive Director of the A+D Museum. Recently, we were asked to do a window display for the DTLA2040 event to be held in the Bradbury ALL Gallery in October (<http://www.dtlA2040.org/community-partners.html>).

We have an idea to install a window mural of historic and future buildings of DTLA collaged to frame the events occurring in the space. I have a wonderful artist and design professor at UCLA who will design the mural gratis (<http://www.andrew-kovacs.com>). However, it will require funding to fill the windows and to make it attractive to passersby. I'm wondering if the DowntownLA BID would be interested in sponsoring the window? I imagine that the price of printing and installing this exhibition would be about $2500. We would include a logo credit to your organization on the window in full view.

I do hope that you will consider our request in all or part. Our vision for DTLA is shared broadly, and I look forward to many partnerships and associations with your organization into the future!

Thanks!
Dora
